How To Get 100,000 People To Send You $10 Each

NO! It's not what you think. Although the title of this material may appear quite gimmicky, it is really about one of the best information products in the market.

YOU CAN MAKE MONEY GIVING AWAY FREE COMPUTER DISKS...

Brandel Comm produces specialty computer software which other businesses and entrepreneurs use for giveaways, premiums or value-added incentives. You can purchase a Master Disk from Brandel for around $75 per title. This price includes your rights to make copies of this disk for your own distribution.

THE $10 HOTCAKE

You can sell the disks outright for as much as $49 each, which is the usual published retail price of a software title. However, a faster and easier way of making money with the disks is simply to give them away!!!

GIFT CERTIFICATES FOR FREE SOFTWARE DISK!!!

Give away software disks - FOR FREE - but charge $10 for shipping, handling and one-time registration.

To do this, simply print "Free Software" gift certificates which you can distribute through schools, fund raisers, libraries, retail outlets, etc. You can even get corporate sponsor(s) to pay for the printing and the distribution of your gift certificates - in exchange for having their name printed on the certificate as the company that's giving away the free computer software disk.

LICENSEE PACKAGE

A basic Master Disk Business Pak comes with one title of software and your reproduction rights to make a maximum of 10,000 copies of the disk. However, Brandel offers customization service in which your company's name and address are "programmed" into the disk itself. When you order for a custom disk, you will also receive UNLIMITED Reproduction Rights. You can produce as much as 100,000 copies of this disk and sell for $10 each.

Of course, you can sell the disk any way you want to, at any price you feel comfortable with. You can give them away for $5 each, or sell them at full retail price of $49 each. It's entirely up to you.
