HOW TO RAISE $200,000 IN 24 HOURS

Many people have had opportunities presented to them where quick cash was necessary. Most people are unable to take advantage of the great opportunities because of a lack of cash.

A simple procedure is available whereby you can generate quick cash within 24 hours. The process is easy and quick but requires that you first make the preparation and lay the groundwork for the plan. You can call this plan the banking round robin.

Go to ten banks and tell the loan officer at each that you want to borrow $1000 for 30 days. Upon paying off your loans, wait 30 days and go back to each bank from which you borrowed the original $1000. This time request a larger amount depending on what you think the bank will loan, say $5000. If each bank approves a $5000 loan you will be able to raise $50,000 the second time. Continue this step-by-step process. Each time you go to the bank, ask for a larger amount and a longer pay-back period.

What you are doing, of course, is establishing a millionaires credit rating by the process of repetition. That is, you always pay back the money when it is due, and by being prompt combined with the number of loans you've made and PAID, you will have established a very powerful credit rating and relationship with the institutions. In about one year after using this process, you should be able to borrow $20,000 from each bank on your signature. Using ten banks in this plan, you will be able to borrow up to $200,000 on your signature in as little as 24 hours.
